

Boukiés: An Enchanting Greek Restaurant in the East Village

Boukiés Greek restaurant is located in the heart of the East Village in NYC. This casual, yet chic restaurant is a great place to get a group of friends together after a long day or to just kick back with your significant other. Boukiés has an extensive Greek menu that will not empty your wallet. Boukiés prides themselves in serving traditional Greek Meze cuisine inspired from the all the different regions of Greece.

Boukiés serves dinner, dessert, and brunch. The restaurant is preparing a lunch menu that will be introduced in the near future. Wine and beer are the two preferred drinks of choice.

Christos Valtzoglou, the manager of Boukiés, is a native of Athens. He has managed New York restaurants since the 70's. As manager, Valtzoglou has maintained the wonderful taste of Greek dishes while keeping them at affordable prices.

Diane Kochilas, top chef at Boukiés, is known as the "Greek food guru." She has published more than 18 books on Greek cuisine and has appeared on many television programs like PBS News Hours and Foodography. She has an abundance of knowledge about Greek food and it shows in the meals she prepares.

Boukiés is a fine dining restaurant that has great food and good company. Located in the heart of the East Village it is an always a guaranteed great time.

PHONE

FAX

WEB

29 East 2nd Street New York, NY 10003

(212) 777-2502

222-222-2222

Boukiesrestaurant.com